Musical Mission to Europe.

We understand that Mr. William Niblo has not closed his career as a manager, but has only suspended it for a short time, in order to bring out still greater attractions. Mr. Uliman has been for some time engaged in Europe in securing musical novelties for Mr. Niblo, and in the steamer of to-day, Mr. Isaac Jacobsohn, a gentleman well known in musical circles, will sail for Europe to bring out the artists engaged by Mr. Ullman, and to

Mr. Jacobsohn is a Wall street capitalist a shrewfinancier, and well acquainted with the merits of Eu ropean artists. He goes on a regular musical mission for Mr. Niblo, with full diplomatic powers, and plenty of money, to bind the high contracting powers, and plenty of money, to bind the high contracting powers to the performance of their agreements. It is the intention of Niblo and Jacobsohn to give us youthfu!, beautiful, fresh and brilliant artistes, like Cruvelli or Johanna Wagner. Cruvelli will probably appear at Niblo's, and for the ballet there is Carlotta Grisi, whom Niblo engaged some time since. Some of these artists, will be brough out by Mr. Jacobsohn. Mr. Ullman has already engaged Signors Beraldi and Galvani, tenors; Bartholdi, baritone Neri, basso; and Signoras Mudon and Julian, primo

It seems to us that if Italian opera is ever to be es tablished in this country, Niblo and Jacobsohn are the men to do it. The Academy of Music was too far out of the way—it was not established upon correct principles; and although it commenced with the greatest ar-tists in the world, who, it was supposed, would succeed anywhere, it broke down before it had completed one on. Mr. Jacobsohn has a large capital, and suffic prudence to avoid the rocks upon which others have youthful, fresh and blooming. Niblo's theatre is a most beautiful and popular house, and in a most excellen-

Meanwhile the opera troupe which lately performed a Niblo's has proceeded to Charleston, S. C., under the direction of Mr. Corbyn. After remaining there for some time, the company will go to New Orleans, where M'lle Nau will appear in French opera. The tour may be extended to Havana and Mexico.

HERALD STATISTICS -The Milwaukee Sentinel, speak ing of our statistics of the number of murders commit-ted in the United States during the year 1854, says:— Wisconsin is set down for eight murders and one exe correct: but there has been no execution, unless the lynching case in Waupacca county was counted as such." The Scatinel is right. The one recorded for lynch law, on the 26th of February.

In connection with murders, we find, by referring to our record, that there were killed during the past year-

Meade Brothers beg leave to return their frateful acknowledgments for the liberal patronage they have enjoyed during the disastrous year 1854. Their arrangements for 1866, both in the picture and wholesale departments, are such that every article used in the business, at wholesale or retail, and pictures, taken in every style known in the art, may be procured at prices to suit the times. Our arrangements in Europe, one of the firm constantly reading there, enable us to furnish everything on the most favorable terms. Thirteen years practical experience in the business give us an advantage over those who sell goods without being able to test their quality. Pictures and goods warranted what they are represented, or money refunded.
